Hack Sain Honored with Johnny Johnson Loyalty Award

Announcement/Press Release

Charles "Hack" Sain

Hack Sain received the second Johnny Johnson Loyalty Award in recognition of nearly a decade of volunteer service and support to Dyson Institute and the Personal Leadership Association. Dr. David Dyson presented the award to Mr. Sain on December 5 at The Club of Birmingham at the annual banquet. Participants in the program included his wife, Helen, members of the Personal Leadership Association, Plan for Life Ministry, as well as students from Birmingham-Southern College, UAB, and Samford University.

Mr. Sain has served the Institute as chairman of the Board of Trustees, Chairman of the Leadership in Engineering Committee, assisted in establishing the Leadership Program at the UAB School of Engineering, and has been a member of the Personal Leadership Association since 1993. The Loyalty Award was established in 2001 and named in memory of Johnny Johnson, co-founder and trustee of the Association and Vice President for Business and Finance at Birmingham-Southern College.
